

Castle Wall Productions Show Descriptions

Castle Wall Productions has several types of shows that we perform.

Black Show

This show is a demo show similar to a “DVD extra” runs 45 – 60 min. Explains some of the behind the scenes tricks and trades of how a live steel choreographed performance is put on. Showcases the weapons, fighting and stunts of Castle Wall Productions is an interactive audience question and answer format.

Burgundy Show

This is a character driven tournament in two 60 min parts where the audience becomes an actual part of the show. Being either Saxon or Norman and transported to 12th century England (1194) the audience will cheer for their perspective heroes to win their respective sides at Prince Johns Grand Coronation Tournament.

Grey Show

A 45-60 minute show with an emphasis on education, while containing fighting, stunts and character acting, the focus is on the times and lives of the people of the age, and can be very broad or very specific area, depending on your particular needs.

White Show

A two hour theater performance with the focus on the acting and very limited sword play.

Street Scenes

These are character driven acting / fighting skits that either work by themselves or help fill in the burgundy shows currently there are several dozen to choose from.

Fighting Show

This is a 30- 60 minute show using CWP costumes, fight, and characters, the emphasis is on action and stunts.

Fantasy Show

The Castle Wall fantasy show is a 45-60 min show that consisting of every imaginable character from history, legend, and fiction almost no two shows are alike. And while using the high quality fights acting and stunts of CWP the characters are all the actors creations pulled from various sources.

Tailored Show

This is a tailor fitted show to match your venues particular flavored the fights are Castle Wall’s but the characters are made to fit your venue. You want William Wallace fighting Longshank’s men, you want David fighting the Philistines, you want CWP can make it happen. CWP tailored shows can go from ancient times to Victorian and can include fantasy too.

NOTE: this type of show might incur additional cost for costume retrofitting to meet the time and flavor of the request.
